++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Windier and wetter for some on Friday but widely milder.

This Evening and Tonight:
Any evening showers in Cornwall fading, then dry and chilly for all. Cloud thickening overnight with rain spreading east, this perhaps briefly falling as snow in Gloucestershire and Wiltshire, mainly over the hills. Becoming much milder by the morning. Minimum temperature 0 deg C (32 deg F).

Friday:
Starting damp and murky with rain, drizzle and hill fog. Brightening up in the northeast but further heavy rain arriving in the west during the afternoon. Becoming windy in Cornwall. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Sunshine and showers on Saturday, these wintry over high ground. Largely dry and sunny on Sunday but further rain overnight. Rain clearing to sunnier skies on Monday. Windy at times.
